

A Report on
“Guest Lecture on World Environment Day”
June 5, 2021

The Department of Commerce and Business Management organized a Guest Lecture on World Environment Day. The program included talks on conservation of resources and to build a greener world. This thought provoking lecture stimulated the awareness about the environment and aimed at enhancing attention and action towards safeguarding it.

The Guest Lecture by Dr. Anand Akhila, Scientist, Central Institute of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants, Lucknow had received a lot of positive feedback from both students and faculty members. There were 67 enthusiastic participants in total, who took part in the Guest Lecture. A doubt clearing question/ answer session preceded the lecture, which helped the students to interact with the speaker and clear their doubts. Dr. Rizwana Atiq and Ms. Nazia Akhlaq coordinated the program very well.

As overpopulation harm the environment
If humans are really intelligent and not simply manipulated by their genes like any other animal, why can't they do anything about overpopulation?
