Faculty of Commerce and Management in Collaboration with Women Study Centre organized an E-Seminar under "Mission Shakti" initiated by Government of Uttar Pradesh under the guidance of Prof A.K Saxena, Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Management and Dr. S. S Mazhar, Head, Department of Commerce and Business Management. The program included talks on Issues related to education, safety, freedom and equality of women in society, it specially focused on empowerment of women by giving them financial independence.

Our eminent Guest Ms. Amrita Bhatty, Manager, Bank of Baroda, Lucknow specifically focused on the theme of program and discussed in length about several financial support schemes specifically designed for working women, house wife and students to strengthen and empower them to achieve an independent and stable position in society. She also emphasized on the importance of higher education of women that will help them to attain a respectable place in society. There were 137 enthusiastic participants in total, who took part in the E-seminar. A doubt clearing question/ answer session preceded the lecture, which helped the students to interact with the speaker and clear their doubts. Dr. Rizwana Atiq and Ms. Nazia Akhlaq coordinated the program very well.
