Report on One Week English Language Program for International Students at Integral University

(January 13th to January 20th, 2024)

From January 13th to January 20th, 2024, an intensive English program was organized for international students by Center for Career Guidance and Development (CCG&D). The program aimed to enhance the English language skills of students from various countries, including Thailand, Syria, Chad, and Nigeria. The initiative was carried out in collaboration with the Directorate of International Affairs, focusing on the fundamental aspects of English, such as reading, listening, writing, and speaking. A total of 22 students attended the program.

The week-long program conducted during the winter break, comprised of daily one-hour classes where students delved into the basics of English grammar, sentence construction, vocabulary building, and practical language usage. The curriculum was meticulously designed to help students adapt to the linguistic demands of academic studies.

Ms. Huma Iqbal employed a comprehensive teaching approach, emphasizing interactive sessions. Students actively participated in activities that honed their skills in reading, listening, and speaking. Daily worksheets were distributed to reinforce theoretical knowledge, and audiovisual tools were incorporated to elucidate complex topics, ensuring a dynamic and engaging learning experience.

The language program for international students resulted in a comprehensive learning experience. The achieved results, which encompass heightened language proficiency, boosted confidence, improved academic readiness, and enriched cultural exchange, highlight the program's efficacy in equipping students for success in English-speaking academic environments. Initiatives of this nature are pivotal in fostering inclusivity and promoting global understanding within educational contexts, which is the hallmark of a global institution such as Integral University.
