Encouraged by the overwhelming response received in the previous years, Center for Career Guidance and Development (CCG&D) organized Summer School program at Integral University, focusing on Spoken English with Grooming and Aptitude with Reasoning.

The primary objective of the Summer School was to improve participants' proficiency in Spoken English and to strengthen their Aptitude and Reasoning abilities. These skills are crucial for academic excellence and career readiness. CCG&D remains dedicated to fostering overall growth of the students and looks forward to the ongoing success of this initiative.

Curriculum Highlights:

- Spoken English: Emphasized on building vocabulary, enhancing pronunciation, and developing confidence in verbal communication.
- Aptitude and Reasoning: Covered various topics including quantitative aptitude, logical reasoning, and analytical skills which are essential for competitive exams and professional success.

All the sessions were conducted by CCG&D resources. The aptitude and reasoning classes were conducted by Aptitude Trainers – Mr. Shaz Alam and Mr. Ayaz Mahmood. While the spoken English sessions were conducted by Communication Trainer - Ms. Shahana Khan. A special combined session for the students of both the programs on Interview Conduct and Behavior Guidelines with CV writing was conducted by Dr. Sufia Rehman. The students were evaluated and certified on the basis of their attendance and final assessment scores.

The summer school concluded with a certificate distribution program on July 13th, 2024 in the Central Auditorium. Director CCG&D, Dr. Nilanjan Mukherji, congratulated the students on successfully completing the programs and laid stress on the importance and value of these skills in their future professional and personal life. More than 60 students attended the event with a sizeable number of overseas students.
