Painting & Henna Competition
(under aegis of Deeksharambh) organized by Department of Computer Application Integral University, Lucknow on the occasion of “78th Independence Day 2024”

On August 14, 2024, the Department of Computer Application hosted the “Celebrating Freedom with Henna Hues” event at B-Block to mark the 78th Independence Day. This competition, part of the Deeksharambh initiative, provided a platform for participants to express their artistic talents on themes of freedom, unity, and national pride. It featured two main categories: a Painting Competition, where participants created artworks reflecting independence and cultural heritage, and a Henna Design Competition, showcasing traditional and contemporary henna art. Participants brought their own materials, including painting supplies and henna cones. The event was judged by Dr. Halima Sadia, Dr. Nupur Mittal, and Mrs. Ankita Srivastava, with Prof. (Dr.) Mohammad Faisal serving as the convener and Dr. Bably Dolly as coordinator, supported by faculty members, Dr. Syed Adnan Afaq, Dr. Shweta Dwivedi, Ms. Fiza Afreen, Mr. Sumit Yadav and student coordinators Shakir seraj, Ritu Rai. Ridhima Singh, Riya yadav and volunteers.
