

INTEGRAL UNIVERSITY, LUCKNOW
FACULTY OF EDUCATION
GUEST LECTURE

4th April 2018

A guest lecture was organized in faculty of education on 4th April 2018 at Hall-4 central auditorium at 10:30a.m. The guest speaker was Dr. Nishtha Shukla, Head of Department, Education, RKG College Lucknow. The topic of the lecture was “Educational Guidance and counselling- Need and Importance”. the objectives of the guest lecture were

- To ensure interaction with experts in the field
- To ascertain the significance of various dimensions of educational guidance
- To present applicative aspects of educational guidance and counselling
- To orient students’ knowledge for latest developments

The guest speaker was an expert in field of guidance and counselling an effective presentation was given by her which covered major aspects which are in educational guidance.

The lecture began with an effective description of the significance of guidance in the life of the student , as the presentation proceeded the student got insight in the most important aspects as presented by expert.

All the faculty members and students of M.Ed, B.Ed . D.El.Ed and Ph.D attended the lecture. 52 students attended the lecture. It was very informative and all the students took active participation in it. The Vote of thanks was given by Dr. Geetika Nidhi

Dr. Geetika Nidhi

Co-ordinator

Dr. A.K. Lodi

Head, Deptt. of Education