Report On

Extension Activity on “Two Days Financial Literacy Awareness Drive”

Date: 09.03.2021

Department of Commerce & Business Management has organized an activity “Two Days Financial Literacy Awareness Drive” under extension activities conducted by the department. The students of BBA, MBA, and BCOM&M.COM Final Year participated and promoted the theme of the program near University Campus, Dasauli Village.

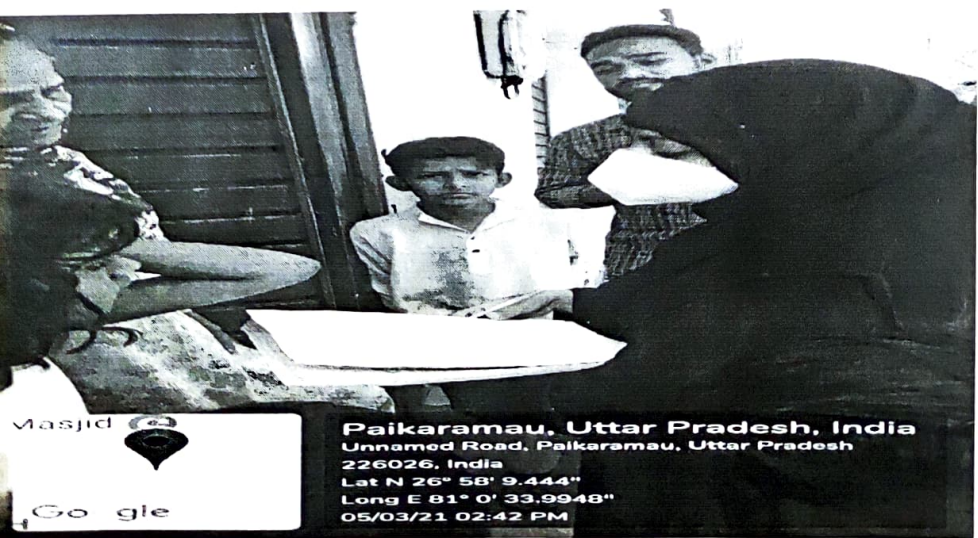

In this extension activity, 264 students of the department have participated and educated the village people about the significance of Financial Literacy by making them aware about the current government schemes and ways to invest and save money for their business and personal lives.

Students have also gathered the data by asking questions through a questionnaire to check the overall financial literacy among the vendors, small shopkeepers & households by visiting their places.

This two day drive was facilitated under the presence and guidance of Faculty Mr. Ehsanul Haque, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce & Business Management.

This initiative of students was highly appreciated by the Dean & Head of the department.
