The need to include moral education in the syllabus has been stressed by spiritual leaders, NGOs and academicians. There is a need to show students the moral path to divert them from evils and instill responsibility and respect. We lack value in secondary education and there is a requirement to show students the moral path to become responsible citizens. Ethics and values are fundamental to any civilized society. We are living in a society where values have lost their significance and unethical practices are widely accepted and justified as a way of life.
