Expert Lecture

on

“IPR Awareness in Academic Institution”

Dear All,

It's a matter of pleasure that Department of Computer Application in association with National Intellectual Property Awareness Mission (NIPAM), Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India organized an expert lecture on IPR Awareness titled “IPR Awareness in Academic Institution” on 9th December 2023 at Hall 1, Central Auditorium. The lecture aims to enlighten students, faculty, and staff members on the significance of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). The session provided a comprehensive overview of various aspects related to IPR, shedding light on its importance, challenges, and best practices.

Mrs. Farha Bano, Coordinator NIPAM (National Intellectual Property Awareness Mission)-TIFAC (Technology Information and Forecasting Assessment Council) was the resource person on the occasion.

Mrs. Bano emphasized acquiring “Intellectual Wealth” especially to achieve the country's objective to be a developed country in the coming twenty-five years. She also discussed the process of filling registration for various Intellectual Properties. Mrs. Bano also narrated that our dominance in intellectual property will only be solidified by granting rights to an increasing number of distinct types of IP, including designs, patents, trademarks, geographical indications, copyrights, and more. She urged the students to come forward and spread the word to earn maximum intellectual wealth.

The lecture was followed by an engaging Q&A session, allowing the audience to seek clarification on various aspects of IPR. Attendees actively participated, raising insightful questions, and sharing their experiences related to intellectual property issues in academia. Finally, the session was concluded with the felicitation of guests and a vote of thanks.

The expert lecture was attended by the faculty, staff members and research scholars of different departments of the university. A total of 110 participants attended and benefitted from the lecture.
