BRIEF REPORT ON

Seminar on “Mughal Art Forms and Islamic Geometry” held on 6th May, 2024

organized by

FACULTY OF ARCHITECTURE, PLANNING & DESIGN

PHASE -3, INTEGRAL UNIVERSITY, LUCKNOW

On May 6th, 2024, the Faculty of Architecture, Planning, and Design successfully conducted an online seminar titled "Mughal Art Forms and Islamic Geometry." The event, held from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., attracted a diverse audience of students and faculty members interested in the intricate relationship between Mughal art and Islamic geometric principles.

The seminar featured a presentation by Ar. Mohammad Amir Khan, currently serving as an Assistant Professor in the Faculty of Architecture and Ekistics at Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi. Ar. Khan provided a comprehensive overview of the historical, cultural, and architectural significance of Mughal art forms, emphasizing the integration of Islamic geometric patterns in various architectural elements.

In addition to the historical context, Ar. Khan explored the mathematical and geometric techniques employed in Islamic art. He explained principles such as tessellation, symmetry, and the use of complex geometric patterns in architectural designs and decorative elements. Visual examples from various Mughal monuments were presented, demonstrating the harmony and precision that define Islamic geometric art.

The event concluded with an engaging Q&A session, where participants had the opportunity to interact with Ar. Khan poses questions about the practical applications of these art forms in contemporary design. This interactive discussion highlighted the enduring relevance of Mughal and Islamic geometric principles in modern architecture and design practices. Overall, the seminar was highly informative and well-received, providing valuable insights into the fusion of art and geometry in Mughal architecture.

The event was successfully coordinated by Prof. Zeba Nisar, Ar. Mohammad Arshad Abideen Ansari and Ar. Mohammad Noman Mansoori who made the event interactive and lively throughout the session. The program ended with a vote of thanks to Prof. Zeba Nisar, Dean, FoAPD, and Prof. (Dr.) Safiullah Khan, Head, Department of Architecture for their direction, management, and support during the event.
