Guest Lecture Report

The Department of Physiotherapy organized a guest lecture on "Inspiring Mind Empowering Students to Succeed in Professional Life" on the 30th of March 2024. Dr. Sumit Asthana, Assistant Dean of the Department of Physiotherapy at Era University, graced the occasion as the distinguished speaker. The lecture aimed to motivate and guide students towards achieving success in their professional careers by cultivating a positive mindset and adopting effective strategies. He encouraged students to identify their strengths, weaknesses, and aspirations, and to proactively work towards their professional goals with determination and resilience.

A total of 95 students actively participated in the guest lecture, demonstrating their eagerness to gain valuable insights and inspiration for their future endeavours. The guest lecture featured an interactive session where students had the opportunity to ask questions, share their thoughts, and engage in discussions with Dr. Asthana. The session received overwhelmingly positive feedback from the participants, who expressed appreciation for the valuable insights, inspiration, and practical guidance provided by the speaker.
