

Orientation Program

Department of Languages

Department of Languages

organizes

Expert Lecture on

Unveiling the Stage: The Art and Impact of Drama

1st August 2024

Resource Person: Mr. Shubham Tiwari, Theatre Teacher, Mocking Bird Theatre Group, Study Hall Foundation.

Participants: Faculty Members and Students of BA and MA Programs

Expert Lecture Title: Unveiling the Stage: The Art and Impact of Drama

Date: 1st August 2024

Location: NLT Block 3rd floor, Language Lab, Department of Languages

Objectives: The significance of dramatic arts, encompassing theatre, drama, and performance, Dramatic arts have been a vital component of human culture for centuries. From ancient greek tragedies to contemporary stage production, the dramatic arts serve as a profound means of expression, communication, and exploration of the human condition. This expert lecture delves into the multifaceted significance of dramatic arts, highlighting their impact on personal development, societal engagement and cultural preservation.

Mr. Shubham Tiwari is a theatre artist for the past ten years in Lucknow and he is a member of Mocking Bird Theatre Group. He has been working with many renowned directors like Chaitanya Prakash, Bhartendu Kashyap and many others. He has written and performed in many street plays. Simultaneously, he is also conducting theatre workshop in schools and colleges. His achievements include:

1- Best Music and best direction and playwrights (Azamgarh Mohotsav)

2- Katha Rang Samman

3-Ek Chalani, Ek Anguthi, Ek Rumal best play in big shot solo theatre festival

4-Changemaker Fellowship(Women Empowerment and Social and Cultural Harmony through Theatre)

5-Sajag Fellowship(For Bharat Ek Samvidhan play)

6- Loreal Fellowship (Breakthrough)(Stand up Against Street Harassment)

The lecture was interesting and engaging with complex narratives and character development techniques and students learned how to analyze various elements of story.

Regards

Prof. HM Arif

Head, Department of Languages

Integral University