The B. Design (Fashion Design) students explored the labs and research work in the Fashion, Accessories, and Leather departments. They were introduced to the newly launched Spring/Summer collection, Visual Merchandising concepts, and the Avant-Garde Collection 2025, recently unveiled for Spectrum.

The B. Design (Product & Interior Design) students analyzed the interior layouts and spatial designs created by Fashion Communication students. They also explored a diverse range of handcrafted items, traditional crafts, and unique art forms of Rajasthan showcased on campus.
