A Brief ReportWalk in: Best Dress Competition

Organized by

Department of Environmental ScienceOn the occasion*Uttar Pradesh Diwas 2025 and Republic Day- 2025

Under the aegis of

Eco-sync (University's Environmental Club)

The Department of Environmental Science under the aegis of Eco-Sync (Environmental Club) of Integral University, Lucknow organized a Walk-In Best Dress Competition on the occasion of Uttar Pradesh Diwas 2025 and Republic Day on 25th January 2025 at 10:00am in front of Central Canteen of Integral University, Lucknow. The event was organised for the students, under the theme Vikas Ya Virasat: Pragati Path Par Uttar Pradesh. The theme was designed to showcase the dual significance of Uttar Pradesh—its rich cultural heritage and the remarkable strides it has made towards development and progress. The competition aimed to inspire students to express their pride in Uttar Pradesh's heritage while highlighting its growth and modernization journey.

The event encouraged participants to dress in Indian attire that symbolized the diverse cultures of Uttar Pradesh or represented notable figures from its history, such as freedom fighters, farmers, scientists, and national sports figures. The dress code was a beautiful blend of traditional Indian attire, including the Tricolor, symbolizing India's unity and pride. The purpose was to create a harmonious representation of the state's cultural identity, the progress it has achieved, and the people who have contributed to its development.

The theme Vikas Ya Virasat (Development or Heritage) reflects the state's journey from its historic past to its present position as a key player in India's growth and progress. Uttar Pradesh, one of the most culturally rich and populous states in India, boasts a heritage filled with historical landmarks, ancient traditions, and notable figures from various fields, including politics, agriculture, sports, and science. Around sixty students registered for the competition. The competition winners were Yakaka Mustapha (MSc Ist year EVS) and Aliyu Hassan Muhammad (MSc Ist Year EVS).

Dr. Ambrina Sardar Khan (HoD, EVS) emphasized the importance of the competition in not only showcasing students' creativity but also in fostering a deeper connection to the cultural heritage and progressive development of Uttar Pradesh. She congratulated all the winners and participants, encouraging them to take pride in their state's heritage and progress. The event concluded with a sense of accomplishment and pride, with students feeling motivated to continue celebrating Uttar Pradesh's cultural and developmental journey in the future. The prize distribution was graced by the Head of the Department and faculties who took the stage to acknowledge the efforts and achievements of the participants.

The entire event was coordinated by faculty members (Dr. Anand Mishra and Dr. Azram Tahoor) and students (Ms Khushi Ali and Ms Alima Khan).

Glimpses of the Event:

With Deep Regards
