National Voters Day 2025

The Department of Environmental Science, Integral University, Lucknow organised a Voters Pledge on the occasion of National Voters Day on 25th January 2025 at 1:00am in front of the Central Canteen of the main University campus. National Voters Day was observed with great enthusiasm on 25th January 2025, by both the faculty and students, marking the importance of voting as a fundamental right in a democracy. This day is celebrated annually to encourage citizens to participate in the electoral process and to raise awareness about the significance of voting. The theme for this year's observance was "Nothing like voting, I vote for Sure", a reminder of the crucial role each vote plays in shaping the future of the nation.

The celebration began with a brief inaugural session by Dr. Ambrina Sardar Khan (HoD, EVS), where the significance of National Voters Day was highlighted. She shared insights into the history of voting rights in India, emphasizing how voting is not just a privilege but a responsibility that allows citizens to influence the country's leadership and policies. The event culminated with a pledge led by Prof. M A Khalid (Dean Student of Welfare, Integral University) and undertaken by all attendees to encourage others to vote and to be responsible citizens in the democratic process.

The faculty and students affirmed their commitment to the democratic values of India, ensuring that the message of the importance of voting reached everyone in the community. Around 80 participants undertook the pledge. The following faculty members coordinated the whole program; Dr. Anand Mishra and Dr. Azram Tahoor.
