BRIEF REPORT
FACULTY OF EDUCATION
ALUMNI MEET- KAL, AAJ AUR KAL

30th January 2025

Alumni are the treasure of the university which make the university proud, they become the torch bearers of the success and tradition of the university. To meet this objective Faculty of Education organized an Alumni Meet- Kal, Aaj aur Kal on 30th January 2025. The alumnus Mr. Khursheed Alam, Assistant Teacher Government Basic Composite School Bhakramau, BKT, Lucknow was invited to interact with students to share his journey of success and motivate the students.

All the students of M.Ed., B.Ed., D. El. Ed., PGDMA and PGDVE collected in W302, Third Floor, Faculty of Education. The programme began with welcome song by Ms. Jaya Sarkar, Student of B.Ed. Second year to welcome the guest. Her melodious song created the aura of conductivity. The guest Mr. Khursheed Alam, Assistant Teacher Government Basic Composite School Bhakramau, BKT, Lucknow was introduced by Dr. Geetika Nidhi, Faculty coordinator of the alumni meet- Kal, Aaj Aur Kal. A Memento was presented to the guest by Prof. A.K. Lodi, Dean, Faculty of Education and Dr. Ekhlak Ahmad, Head Department of Education. The welcome address was given by Dr. Ekhlak Ahmad, who indicated the significance of the interaction of the alumni with the students, he also discussed the journey of Mr. Khursheed and his diverse personality and his contribution towards the department who was student of M. Ed. in the session 2011-2012. The Guest was invited for the interaction by Dr. Geetika Nidhi. Mr. Khursheed began his interaction with sharing of his motivational personal experiences of being a teacher and the acknowledging dimensions which a teacher can touch in the life of the student. His discourse was enchanting for the students who were well engrossed in listening to his experiences and observations. He said that in life of a teacher there are situations where they must take decisions which great care as future of students is attached with it. He attributed his success as a teacher to the education he received in the Department of Education by the teachers. He shared his journey from a private school teacher to a government schoolteacher. He was inspired to become a government teacher, and he fulfilled his dream with full dedication and hard work.

He made the session interactive by motivating to the students. The queries of the students were answered by the guest in the question answer session, Sada Siddiqui student of M.Ed. second year asked him what the major difference between private and government job was, to which Mr. Khursheed answered that the basic difference according to him was the kind students coming to the school which gives lots of opportunity to the teacher to help them out where as here are many resources for the teacher in the private schools. Students actively took part in the question answer session. At last students were addressed by Prof. (Dr.) A.K. Lodi, Dean, Faculty of Education, who expressed the importance of the interaction programme and motivated the students to rise above and reach out to their aspirations. All the students were highly motivated by his words. The programme was attended by all the students and faculty members of the Department of Education. The vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Geetika Nidhi, Faculty Coordinator she expressed her heartiest thanks to the Alumni Mr. Khursheed Alam to spare his valuable time for motivation the budding teachers of the Department of Education.
