We are pleased to inform you that the Faculty of Education organized a debate competition on the occasion of National Education Day 2024, commemorating the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, India's first Minister of Education. The event which was organized on 11th November 2024, in W304, III Floor, Academic Block W, Phase II from 11:30 am onwards aimed to honour his contributions to the educational landscape of India and highlight the importance of education in driving societal development. The competition saw enthusiastic participation from students of the Department of Education, reflecting their keen interest in engaging with critical educational themes.

Details of the Event:

Theme: "Education for Peace is the sole responsibility of Educational Institutions."

Judge: Dr. Javed Akhtar, Assistant Professor, Deptt. of Humanities and Social Sciences.

The event commenced with a welcome address by Dr. Dhriti Tiwari, Assistant Professor Faculty of Education, who emphasized the relevance of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad's vision for education in contemporary times. This was followed by the debate performances by the students. There were five students against the motion and four students who spoke for the motion. The students critically analyzed and articulated their perspectives on the vital role of educational institutions in shaping the future. After the debate performance, the house was open for various faculty members to express their views on the occasion. Dr. Smita Srivastava, Associate Professor, Faculty of Education, highlighted that while families bear the primary responsibility for instilling values of peace in children, the influence of formal educational settings remains indispensable in nurturing a culture of harmony and understanding. Dr. Sania Kulsum, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Education highlighted that there should be peace with nature and within oneself. The concluding remark for the occasion was delivered by Prof. (Dr.) A.K. Lodi, Head Deptt. of Education who eloquently highlighted the enduring significance of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad's vision for education in shaping modern India. Drawing attention to Azad's unwavering belief in the power of knowledge and education as tools for social transformation, he underscored how his ideals continue to resonate in contemporary educational policies and practices.

The results of the event are as follows:

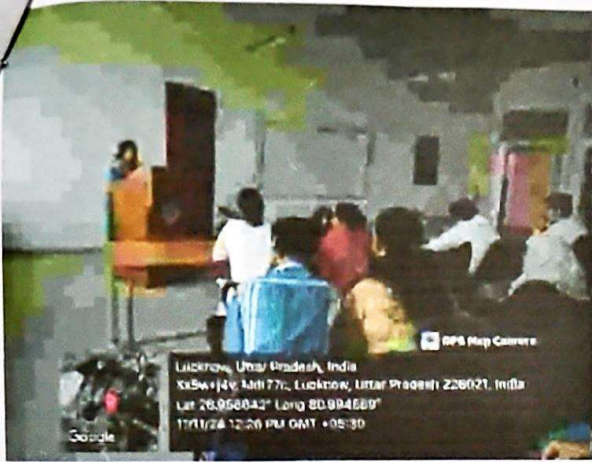

First Position: Jasmine Khan, B.Ed. Ist Semester.

Second Position: Ayushi Shukla, B.Ed. Ist Semester.

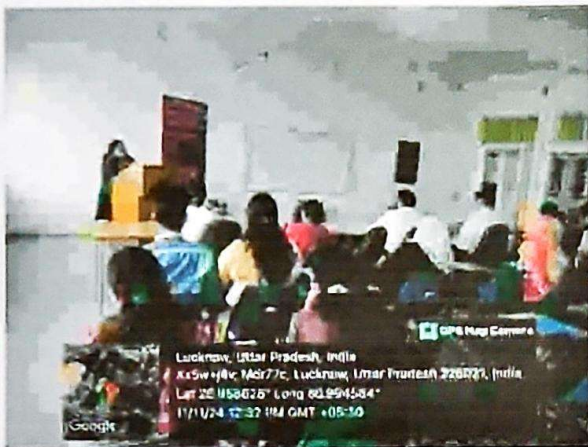

Third Position: Maaz Abdul Mannan and Utkarsh, B.Ed. Ist Semester.

The event was successfully coordinated by Dr. Dhriti Tiwari, and Dr. Manisha Singh, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Education, Integral University Lucknow.
