A Report on
"Anti- Ragging Day, 12th of August, 2025" organized by
Department of Environmental Science, IUL

The Department of Environmental Science organized "Anti-Ragging Day" on 12th of August, 2025 at 11:30 am (4th Floor, E Block, Library). The program commenced with a welcome address delivered by the Head of the Department, Dr. Ambrina Sardar Khan, Associate Professor, Department of Environmental Science, Integral University, Lucknow. In her remarks, Dr. Khan highlighted the importance of maintaining discipline within the campus as a cornerstone of academic excellence and personal growth. She stressed that a well-disciplined environment not only fosters effective learning but also cultivates respect, responsibility, and integrity among students.

She further underscored the significance of ensuring a ragging-free atmosphere, reiterating the university's strong stance against any form of misconduct or harassment. Dr. Khan encouraged the students to contribute towards building a culture of mutual respect, inclusivity, and cooperation, where every individual feels safe, valued, and empowered to achieve their full potential. Her address set the tone for the program by reminding the students of their role in upholding the values and ethos of the institution.

This was followed by a Power-Point Presentation by Departmental Proctorial Board member Dr. Mohammad Usama, Assistant Professor, Department of Environmental Science, Integral University, Lucknow, where he explained to the students about how Proctorial Board functions in Integral University, its hierarchy and their efforts to ensure ragging free campus for all. He advised students that they should keep themselves away from ragging as it is a menace and will destroy their career and academic growth.

The program also included Screening of Videos related to Anti ragging from the Website of National Anti-Ragging Monitoring Agency Centre for Youth (C4Y) (<https://www.antiragging.in/>). Following Videos were screened:

(1) How Ragging is Defined and What Constitutes Ragging
