

INTEGRAL UNIVERSITY

Report on Environmental Awareness Campaign
Organized by
Environmental Law Society, Faculty of Law

Dear All,

The Environmental Law Society, Faculty of Law, in collaboration with Integral Institute of Agricultural Science and Technology, Integral University, Lucknow, has successfully organized an Environmental Awareness Campaign (किसान गोष्ठी) on the theme “Role of Indigenous Practices in Soil and Climate Management” (मिट्टी और जलवायु प्रबंधन में पारंपरिक ज्ञान की भूमिका) on 29th April, 2025 at Khwaja Ka Purwa Village, Lucknow. The campaign aimed to highlight the significance of traditional knowledge in addressing contemporary environmental challenges related to soil and climate.

Date: 29th April, 2025

Venue: Khwaja Ka Purwa Village

Objectives of the Campaign:

The primary objectives of the campaign were to:

- Raise awareness about the ecological significance of indigenous practices.
- Promote the adoption of sustainable soil and climate management techniques.
- Facilitate dialogue between experts, local communities, and students.
- Emphasize the need to preserve and document traditional knowledge systems.
- Highlight the role of indigenous knowledge in achieving environmental sustainability.

Dean,
Faculty of Law

The campaign featured insightful presentations by the following speakers:

Dr. P. Smriti Rao, Assistant Professor, IIAST, Integral University

Dr. Nitish Kumar, Assistant Professor, IIAST, Integral University

Dr. Akshay Kumar, Assistant Professor, IIAST, Integral University

The campaign witnessed active participation from villagers, students, and faculty members. The speakers emphasized the need to recognize, preserve, and promote indigenous practices for sustainable development. Participants gained valuable insights into the ecological wisdom embedded in traditional knowledge systems and their relevance in addressing current environmental challenges. The campaign successfully created awareness about the importance of indigenous practices.

The campaign was organized under the direction and guidance of Prof. (Dr.) Naseem Ahmed (Dean & HoD, Faculty of Law, Integral University), Prof. Saba Siddiqui (HoD, IISAT, Integral University) and Faculty Convenor Dr. Manzoor Khan (Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Integral University).

Photos of the event are in-lined herewith.

Naseem Ahmed
Dean,
Faculty of Law

With Regards,
 Environmental Law Society,
 Faculty of Law,
 Integral University,
 Lucknow.

Sahana
 Dean,
 Faculty of Law
 Integral University,
 Kursi Road, Lucknow