Dear All,

It gives us immense pleasure to inform you that the DQAC, Faculty of Law, Integral University organized a guest lecture on “Practical Challenges in Service Litigation: Strategies for Successful Advocacy” on 5th October 2024. The event, held at the Seminar Hall, T-Block, Phase-II was graced by Designated Senior Advocate Sanjay Bhasin, Allahabad High Court (Lucknow Bench), who shared his vast experience and expertise in service litigation.

The event commenced with a warm welcome note highlighting the significance of such lectures in bridging the gap between academic learning and practical legal challenges. In his lecture, Advocate Sanjay Bhasin delved into the intricacies of service litigation, offering a wealth of practical insights. He emphasized the importance of prioritizing litigation early in one's legal career to establish a strong foundation. He highlighted that while framing arguments effectively is crucial for successful advocacy. According to him, a well-structured argument is not only about presenting the right points but also about strategically omitting unnecessary details that could weaken one's position.

The interactive session allowed students to engage directly with Advocate Sanjay Bhasin, asking questions and seeking advice on various aspects of litigation and courtroom management. His entire lecture, ranging from argument techniques to the importance of client relationships and early career strategies, captivated the audience and offered students a deeper understanding of what it takes to succeed in service litigation.

Following the lecture, a memento was presented to Advocate Sanjay Bhasin by Prof. Dr. Naseem Ahmed, Dean Faculty of Law, as a token of appreciation for his valuable contribution. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks, followed by the National Anthem. Overall, the session was highly engaging and informative, offering valuable learning experience for all attendees.

Regards,
 Prof Naseem Ahmed
