Dear All,

The Cultural & Literary Society, Faculty of Law, Integral University, in collaboration with Equal Opportunity Cell, Integral University organized an online guest lecture on 12th April, 2025 to commemorate the birth anniversary of D.R. B.R. Ambedkar, on the theme “Viewing Ambedkar’s Questions on Caste through International Law.” The session was graced by the presence of Ms. Swati Singh Parmar, Assistant Professor, Dharmashastra National Law University, Jabalpur.

The session began with a warm welcome and introductory remarks by Dr. Seema Siddique, Assistant Professor who briefly highlighted the guest’s achievements and contributions in the field. Following the introduction, Ms. Swati Singh Parmar began the lecture by presenting a background on the topic and shared her insights and perspectives on caste through the lens of international legal standards, fostering a thoughtful dialogue on global human rights and social justice. The session was attended by 147 participants, including students, faculty members reflecting strong interest and engagement with the subject.

The lecture was followed by an interactive session during which students engaged actively by asking questions. The guest answered each question in detail, encouraging further reflection and discussion.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Almas Fatima, a student member of the Cultural & Literary Society, who expressed gratitude to the guest speaker for her valuable time and insights.

The online guest lecture was a great success, enriching the academic experience of all attendees by providing valuable insights and offering a broader perspective on the subject.
