2nd National Case Analysis Competition on Environmental Law,
Organized by Faculty of Law Integral University

The Environmental Law Society, Faculty of Law, Integral University, Lucknow, has successfully organized 2nd National Case Analysis Competition on Environmental Law on 10th March 2025.

Case Analysis competitions allow students to apply theoretical legal concepts to real-world scenarios. This practical application enhances their understanding of how the law operates in practice. Analyzing case laws and judgments on environmental issues is crucial for cultivating a deep understanding of environmental law. This legal acumen is essential in providing students with the necessary tools to tackle urgent environmental challenges. Furthermore, it plays a pivotal role in raising awareness about environmental conservation and sustainable development, aligning with the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals adopted in 2015.

A total of 136 students from prestigious universities across the country including University of Lucknow, Aligarh Muslim University, Delhi University, Symbiosis Law College (Pune), St. Xavier's University, Kolkata, Christ University (Bangalore), Banaras Hindu University etc participated in the event.

The Judges of the competition were:

Dr. Seema Siddiqui, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Integral University

Dr. Mirza Juned Beg, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Integral University

Dr. Manzoor Khan, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Integral University

Dean,
