MINDQUEST2.0

ORGANIZED BY THE CAREER AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE (CPDC).

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER APPLICATION, INTEGRAL UNIVERSITY, LUCKNOW

Introduction

The Career and Professional Development Committee (CPDC) successfully organized the second edition of its flagship aptitude and skill-enhancement initiative, “MindQuest 2.0”, in collaboration with “My Mentor”. The event was conducted on 13th & 17th October 2025 at the Central Auditorium. This initiative aimed to enhance students’ aptitude, reasoning, analytical thinking, communication ability, and global competitiveness. Key activities included IELTS mock tests, personality and technical assessments, and simulated interview rounds. Selected participants were also allowed to apply for international scholarships through partner organisations of My Mentor.

Program Details

MindQuest 2.0 fostered an intellectually engaging and competitive environment with enthusiastic participation from students. The event took place in Halls 1 & 2 of the Central Auditorium and was conducted in two phases: Round 1 on October 13, 2025, and Round 2 on October 17, 2025.

The assessments were conducted through a structured two-module format evaluating analytical, verbal, and technical capabilities. A total of 290 students registered for the event. After Round 1 (with a passing criteria of 60%), 32 students qualified for Round 2.

Following the final evaluations:

Winners

- ❖ 1st Position: *Yashpreet Singh (BCA 3rd Year, Group-C)
- ❖ 2nd Position: *Mohd. Ahmad Baqai (BCA 3rd Year, Group-F)
- ❖ 3rd Position: *Fawwaz Modh. Ubaid (BCA 3rd Year, Group-C)

All three winners demonstrated outstanding performance and commendable proficiency throughout the competition.

Glimpses of the Event

MindQuest 2.0 proved to be a highly enriching academic and professional development experience, equipping students with essential skills for national and global opportunities. The Department of Computer Application, remains committed to expanding this initiative and continuing to nurture student excellence in future editions.
